1. Statement of Principle & Statutory Basis

Yes, Amity University Maharashtra (Mumbai) formally provides institutional access schemes and reasonable accommodation frameworks for persons with disabilities (Divyangjan). In compliance with the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (RPwD) Act 2016, University Grants Commission (UGC) Guidelines for Barrier-Free Higher Education, and the Maharashtra Private Universities framework, the University operates dedicated bodies—including the Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) and the Disability Support Office—to guarantee equitable academic and physical access.

2. Key Access Schemes & Concessions Provided by Amity University

- Amity Divyaang Scholarship Scheme: Eligible students with benchmark disabilities certified by a government medical board are also eligible for similar merit scholarship.
- Examination Accommodations & Concessions: Provision of registered scribes/readers, compensatory extra time, tailored alternate seating arrangements on ground floors, and flexible question-paper formatting for candidates with visual, orthopedic, or learning disabilities.
- Academic & Remedial Accommodations: Mandatory extra tutoring and remedial learning support for students diagnosed with specific learning disabilities such as Dyslexia, Dysgraphia coordinated via faculty mentors.
- Accessible Built Environment & Mobility Schemes: Provision of wheelchair access, ramps across academic blocks, accessible passenger elevators with auditory aids, battery-operated campus transit vehicles, and dedicated barrier-free restrooms on campus.
- Residential & Hostel Accommodations: Guaranteed accessible on-campus housing allocations for disabled students and staff, prioritized ground/low-level floor allotment, and specialized western disabled-friendly restrooms without additional overhead charges.
- Psychological & Well-being Support: Specialized psycho-social counseling and mental health services provided through the 'Way for Well-Being' Counselling Centre under the Amity Institute of Behavioral & Allied Sciences (AIBAS).
- Assistive Technology & Digital Accessibility: Ongoing compliance with WCAG standards for institutional digital resources, provision of screen-reading tools, and access to assistive materials through the central library system.

3. Implementation Machinery & Governance Bodies

- Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC): Monitors diversity, addresses complaints of differential treatment or marginalization, and safeguards equity for students belonging to Socio-Economically Disadvantaged Groups (SEDGs) and Persons with Disabilities.
- Disability Support Office / Cell: Liaises between students, administrative departments, and academic heads to assess accommodation requests and ensure barrier-free daily operations.
- Disability Accommodation Review Committee: Headed by the Dean/Head of Institution, Dean of Student Welfare, senior faculty, and administrative representatives, this committee evaluates medical assessments and recommends custom educational adjustments to the Vice Chancellor.

4. Procedure to Avail Disability Access Schemes

1. Step 1: Voluntary Disclosure & Document Submission: During admission or upon diagnosis, the candidate submits their Unique Disability ID (UDID) or Government Medical Board Disability Certificate along with a Formal Accommodation Request Form to the Head of Institution (HoI).
2. Step 2: Scrutiny by Disability Committee: The HoI forwards the case to the Dean of Student Welfare and the Disability Support Committee to review the specific functional barriers (mobility, vision, examination scribe needs, specialized hostel room).
3. Step 3: Approval by Competent Authority: The Committee formulates a Reasonable Accommodation Plan, which is sanctioned by the Hon. Vice Chancellor.
4. Step 4: Operational Delivery: Administration, Examination Controller, and Academic Program Directors execute the prescribed accommodations immediately without imposing additional surcharges on the student.

5. Grievance Redressal & Anti-Discrimination Protection

Amity University Mumbai enforces a strict non-discrimination policy. Any denial of approved accommodations, physical accessibility hurdles, or harassment due to disability may be reported immediately to the Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) or Student Grievance Redressal Committee (SGRC). Reports are adjudicated under accelerated timelines, with mandatory protections against victimization or academic reprisal.
